Opening Prayer for July 14, 2024 Sunday Worship

Reflecting on Exodus 33:17-23

God of All, you know us, personally and individually. You call us by name. Though we have never seen your face, we encounter you in all aspects of our lives. We see you in the face of our loved ones, in the eyes of one who is kind, in the midst of the worshipping congregation, in the splendor of the woods or meadow, in the beauty of the sea waves crashing on the shore, and in the ordinary experiences of daily living.

You show yourself to us because you know us, by name, inside and out, and you love us deeply. We return that love as we worship and share this holy time with one another.

Let us serve with joy and compassion. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Exodus 33:17-23

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

¹⁷ The LORD said to Moses, "I will also do this thing that you have asked, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." ¹⁸ Moses said, "Please show me your glory." ¹⁹ And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you and will proclaim before you the name, 'The LORD,' and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. ²⁰ But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one shall see me and live." ²¹ And the LORD continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock, ²² and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; ²³ then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back, but my face shall not be seen."
